

ART Classes for Kids Fall 2010

To register, to become a member or to learn more about Dublin Arts Council's class offerings, please visit www.dublinarts.org or call (614) 889-7444. Questions: Jodi Kushins, DAC Education Consultant, email: kushins@dublinarts.org.

Mixed Level Potter's Wheel

Tuesdays, Sept. 21 - Nov. 9
4 - 7 pm
Grades: 6-8
Registration deadline - Sept. 14
Limit 8 students!

Fee: $190 (Members $180)
Instructor: Kim Good

This class is intended for both beginning and experienced student potters. Beginners will learn basic skills such as centering, wedging, shaping, trimming and glazing to create vases, cups, mugs, pots, bowls and plates. Advanced students will improve existing skills. Creativity will be encouraged during more independently designed projects, such as a place setting for the dinner table.

A World of Clay

Saturdays, Sept. 25 - Nov. 13
10 am - 12:30 pm
Grades: 3-5
Registration deadline - Sept. 18

Fee: $140 (Members $130)
Instructor: Kim Good

Let your imagination come to life in clay. Use various hand-building techniques such as pinching, slab building and coil construction to create your own world of clay characters, castles, animals and habitats. Students will also have opportunities to create functional pieces including cereal bowls, flower pots and mugs for hot cocoa.

FACULTY: Kim Good

Kim Good is a veteran instructor at Dublin Arts Council. She earned a Master of Art Education from The Ohio State University and works for Hilliard Schools. Good believes we are all creative beings and loves the freedom of expression and energy that children bring to the artroom. Good will lead both classes at DAC this fall.
